Thirty Second Sunday Year C 06 November 2022

GOSPEL - REFLECTION

Death is not the end (Lk 20:27-38)

Most of us at one time or another will have remarked at the passing of someone whose spouse had predeceased them, 'They're re-united in heaven.' Yet in today's gospel Jesus doesn't get drawn into the specifics of who might be married to whom in the afterlife.

At the heart of our Christian faith is belief that death is not the end. We believe that the relationship we have with God, and that starts in this life, survives death and continues after death. We call this resurrection. In this month of November we recall those we have loved and have died.

PRAYER FOR SOLACE

*May Christ support us all the day long,
till the shadows lengthen,
and the evening comes,
and the busy world is hushed,
and the fever of life is over
and our work is done.*

*Then in his mercy
may he give us a safe lodging,
and holy rest and peace at the last.
Amen.*

Fáilte / Welcome

This Sunday we celebrate the Baptism of Noah Coughlan and welcome him into the Christian family. Blessings to his family on this happy occasion.

New Votive Light Stands

Two new votive light stands will be put in place this coming week. One stand with blue containers will be placed in front of Our Lady's Statue and the second stand with gold containers will be placed at the back of the church. These units with 'real candles' will be installed by St. Killian Candles. The units are popular in many churches and are proven to be environmentally friendly, smokeless and safe.
